Day 1. What is your Niyah (intention) for this Ramadan? What are your goals? Your reward is proportionate to your intention. So wish big and aim high this Ramadan.	Day 7. You're approaching the one third of Ramadan. Time to asses yourself. Are you feeling a burnt out, falling short? Reflect how you can turn around and make this Ramadan most productive.
Day 14. Feeling the half way dip? Re-energize yourself by treat this Ramadan as your last. No guarantee if you'll see one next year. Create sense of urgency, and bring back your focus and determination.	Day 21. Less than 10 days to go, this is the best is yet to come. A night is these last 10 days is better than a thousand months. Prepare a master dua list ready, so your mind doesn't go blank when the time comes to make dua.
Eid. Thank Allah for His blessings of family, food, clothes. Thank Allah for giving you the opportunity to witness this Ramadan. Make dua for the Ummah in general too.	After Eid. Pick a good deed that you started in Ramadan, and make it habit after Ramadan. Start small, and remain consistent. Seek Allah's help to make it easy. Lastly, hold yourself accountable - evaluate, monitor and reflect.
